

On behalf of Fisheries Information Centre of the Estonian Marine Institute of the University of Tartu and the Estonian Association of Fishery, we are pleased to invite you to the 6th Fisheries Forum of the Baltic Sea Region

"The Baltic Sea Fisheries in a Changing World"

to be held on November 6th 2025 in Estonia, Tallinn at Nordic Hotel Forum (Viru väljak 3, Tallinn) and via virtual conference platform Worksup.

The link to participate online will be published on the event webpage before the Forum.
Pre-registration is not required to follow the Forum online.

The forum agenda can be accessed via the link.

To participate on-site, would you kindly confirm your participation by October 23 at the latest using the link.

For further information, please feel free to contact Mr Toomas Armulik, Head of Fisheries Information Centre, toomas.armulik@ut.ee

Arrangement costs will be covered by the European Maritime, Fisheries and Aquaculture Fund (EMFAF)

Fisheries Forum VI "The Baltic Sea Fisheries in a Changing World" on November 6th, 2025 in Estonia, Tallinn

AGENDA

10:00 Registration and welcome coffee

10:30 Introduction

10:40 "Renewable energy policy from a fisheries perspective"

Mati Sarevet (Member of the Management Board, AS Reyktal; SG Coordinator for Distant Water Fleet, EU ETP)

11:20 "Decarbonisation of the European fleet: current state of fisheries, regulatory and funding challenges"

Jules Danto (Policy Officer, EAPO – European Association of Fish Producers Organisations; EU ETP, SG Coordinator for Large-Scale Fisheries)

12:00 Opening remarks. Hendrik Johannes Terras, Minister of Regional Affairs and Agriculture

12:10 Coffee break

12:30 "H₂-SEAS project: funding, investments, regulation, barriers, and environmental impact"

Valdur Lahtvee (Senior Project Manager, Stockholm Environment Institute, SEI Tallinn, Climate Systems and Energy Policy Unit)

13:10 "Importance, risks, and assumptions at different stages of the marine aquaculture production chain (from egg production and hatching to sea-cage farming and marketing)"

Niels Dalgaard (CEO, Musholm A/S)

14:00 Lunch

15:00 "New seafood profit centers - beyond protection, creating value through packaging"

Gonzalo Campos (online) (Ex-Sealedair Cryovac)

15:40 "The role of automation and digitalisation in fisheries"

Gorka Gabiña (online) (Head of Efficient Use of Resources, AZTI)

16:20 Coffee break

16:40 "Responsible Pelagic Fisheries Management Standard"

Johannes Palsson (CEO, FF Skagen)

17:20 Panel discussion and closing of the Forum

18:00 Supper

Please note that the agenda is subject to change.

Arrangement costs will be covered by the European Maritime, Fisheries and Aquaculture Fund (EMFAF)

